BANQUET

Congratulations! You are chosen to be amongst those who will eat at the feast in the kingdom of God. The time of the banquet is near and you cannot afford to miss out...

Today Jesus says these kind words to you, "My blood was shed for your present, past and future mistakes. I was wounded for your transgressions, I was bruised for your iniquities: the chastisement of your peace was upon me; and with my stripes your physical, spiritual, emotional and psychological healing was confirmed.

Behold, I stand at the door of your HEART and knock. If YOU hear My voice and open the door, I will come in and dine with YOU. (Rev 3:20)

IF YOUR RESPONSE TO THE INVITATION IS YES

Say this Declaration Now

Lord Jesus, I accept your invitation today. I am sorry for all my wrongs and repent of my ignorance. Please forgive me and help me become a better person committed to you all the days of my life, Amen.

ON WHAT FOUNDATION ARE YOU BUILDING?

1 Corinthians 3:11-13, For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12 If anyone builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw, 13 their work will be shown for what it is,

No builder starts a house from the rooftop..... All buildings have a foundation, and God has given you the responsibility to choose wisely the foundation you want to build your business empire, career, ministry, family, relationships, etc. 1 Corinthians 3:11, For no man can lay a foundation other than the one which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. If there is no solid foundation in what you do, no matter how attractive or appealing it may look, it will not stand. If the foundation is not right, it will not last.

RHEMA FOR YOU

On what foundation are you building? 2 Corint. 4:18, says; So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal. Think wisely through your choices and decisions, because when you make Jesus the foundation of all that you do, he will put it upon himself to ensure that what has been committed to him is sustained.

Psalm 92:10 King James Version (KJV)10 But my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn: I shall be anointed with fresh oil.

As you declare these in faith knowing that God has already given you victory, you shall achieve nothing less than victory.

Today - I affirm the truth of God's word concerning my head. My head is exalted above the imagination of the wicked, my head is fruitful and yielding positive results, my head is exalted with the oil of prosperity, gladness, and favor; As a custodian of these truth, I declare that every step I take shall unlock doors, and gates of immeasurable blessings in Jesus name amen

Expect It to Happen

We know the word wait means "to expect" or "to look for." But remember, it also means "to serve" — just like a waiter waits on your table at a restaurant. Our act of waiting isn't supposed to be spent sitting around passively hoping that something will happen sometime soon.

Be Eager with Faith

Once we've asked God to answer a question or solve a problem, we need to be eagerly awaiting His answer. We need to be serving actively, aggressively and expectantly. Sometimes we find ourselves in such horrible messes that it's hard to imagine waiting one more second. But we need to keep waiting on God and trusting Him with a sweet and simple faith. Then, in a way we never could've figured out—God moves suddenly!

Then All of a Sudden...

In the Bible, Paul and Silas knew about waiting, and they waited well. Acts 16 tells the story of how they were attacked by a crowd, beaten and thrown in jail. Verse 24 says the jailer put them into the inner prison (the dungeon) and fastened their feet in the stocks. He was making sure they couldn't escape. But about midnight, God showed up.

more next week..

Joyce Meyer explains how to apply Biblical solutions to your daily living and discover answers to your everyday dilemmas.

God's desire for you is to be healthy

Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. (3 John 1:2)

(Part 3: EFFECTIVE WAYS FOR TREATING POLYCYSTIC OVARIAN SYNDROME NATURALLY...(PCOS)

3. Polycystic ovaries (fluid-filled cysts):
There is a multiple of fluid-filled sacs visualized on the ovaries, which is a strong clinical indication for identifying PCOS in a reproductive-age woman.

Others Common Symptoms of PCOS:

- 4. Obesity: There is weight gain due to insulin resistance and the inability of the body to make use of available glucose.
- 5. Acne: This is due to the circulating excess androgen
- 6. Infertility: Due to androgen resulting to absence of ovulation and miscarriage, as a result of low or deficient progesterone hormone secretion.
- 7. Depression (mood changes)
- 8. Low sex drive (poor libido)
- 9. High cholesterol (could lead to heart diseases)
- 10. Recurrent miscarriage
- 11. Acanthosis Nigricans (dark spots under the armpits, neck etc.)
- 12. Heavy menstrual bleeding
- 13. Risk of developing Type 2 Diabetes mellitus
- 14. High risk of developing heart disease

Ways to Treat Polycystic Ovarian Syndrome Naturally:

Usually, doctors routinely prescribe medications like Metformin to reduce blood sugar level by increasing insulin sensitivity to cell receptors and Clomid to unnaturally induce ovulation, respectively, without addressing the root causes of PCOS.

Although this intervention has worked and helped a handful of couples to conceive, however, recent findings have shown that subjecting the female ovary to several cycles of Clomiphene Citrate comes with adverse effects that reduces the quantity and quality of a woman's cervical mucus and thins the womb lining owing to its anti-estrogenic effects.

When a woman does not secrete the alkaline-rich cervical mucus which occurs towards ovulation, this will result difficulty in falling pregnant, as this special fluid is very necessary for transporting the male sperm cells into the womb and fallopian tubes for a good chance at conception.

How can Teen or Young Adult cope with a Parent Who Has a Substance use Problem? - Part 1

EMAIL YOUR QUESTIONS TO

(Answers are published on this page weekly as anonymous guaranteeing your privacy)

Alcohol problems and addictions to drugs (such as opioids) are called substance use disorders. Living with a parent who has a substance use problem is hard; Because; It can affect how you feel and act, It can affect your family life too. See from the examples below if some of them describe what's it's like for you.

EXAMPLES OF HOW THIS CAN AFFECTS YOU;

- You might feel embarrassed, angry, or sad about a parent's substance use;
- You might feel worried about your parent's health or safety;
- You might become worried for yourself, siblings, or other parent;
- You might feel neglected, alone, or unsafe at home;
- You might feel frustrated when there is no change;
- The family might encounter problems because a parent has trouble keeping a job or paying the bills
- You might notice that there may not be enough food or money
- You might avoid having friends come over, because of your parents reaction.
- You might miss school, or have trouble keeping up with schoolwork

If this is your experience, know that you're not alone God is with you. Forgive them, love them and pray for them. Psalm 55:22, Cast your burden upon the LORD and He will sustain you; He will never let the righteous be shaken. Also, don't carry the burden alone tell a trusted adult (e.g health practitioner, teacher, christian counselor or pastor) what it's like for you. In other to get the support you need and deserve.

I declare that I will trust God, who exceeds the expectations of those who put their hope in Him alone.

Next Week, we will outline steps on What to do....
