BANQUET

Congratulations! You are chosen to be amongst those who will eat at the feast in the kingdom of God. The time of the banquet is near and you cannot afford to miss out...

Today Jesus says these kind words to you, "My blood was shed for your present, past and future mistakes. I was wounded for your transgressions, I was bruised for your iniquities: the chastisement of your peace was upon me; and with my stripes your physical, spiritual, emotional and psychological healing was confirmed.

Behold, I stand at the door of your HEART and knock. If YOU hear My voice and open the door, I will come in and dine with YOU. (Rev 3:20)

IF YOUR RESPONSE TO THE INVITATION IS YES

Say this Declaration Now

Lord Jesus, I accept your invitation today. I am sorry for all my wrongs and repent of my ignorance. Please forgive me and help me become a better person committed to you all the days of my life, Amen.

FOR EDIFICATION, HOPE & COMFORT

You've got much more than you think!!!

Be intentional about how you live your life. Don't settle for less than God's best for you. It's time to arise out of Procrastination, Doubts & Fear in other to Shine.

"YOU WILL GIVE THEM SOMETHING TO EAT"

Mark 6:35-37, By this time it was late in the day, so his disciples came to him. "This is a remote place," they said, "and it's already very late. 36 Send the people away so that they can go to the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat." 37 But he answered, "You give them something to eat." They said to him, "That would take more than half a year's wages[e]! Are we to go and spend that much on bread and give it to them to eat?"

Don't always wait for people to ask you for help, before you give them something. When the disciples secretly asked Jesus to send the people away because they were unwilling to spend anything in other to provide bread for the crowd. Jesus interrupted their mindset and re-organised their mentalities, by drawing their attention to their supernatural ability to be an answer to someone's silent prayers without having them to plead or negotiate for it.

RHEMA FOR YOU

Cornelious gifts and kindness became a memorial offering which was duely rewarded by God. This season take time to look closely around you, and discern whom God is prompting you to be the answer to their prayer. Whatever it is that you are led to do, do not tarry; it could be a word of encouragement, it could be financial aid, it could be prayer, etc. Do not withhold anything that is within your power to bless others. Because what you make happen in their lives might open strategic doors for you, increase their faith and become their long awaited shift.

FOR MOTIVATION & FREEDOM

Who Should You Forgive?

Forgiveness also keeps Satan from getting an advantage over you...

Forgive the person who badly hurt you long ago and also the stranger who stepped on your toe in the grocery store. Take those two extremes and forgive them in addition to everyone in between. Forgive quickly. The quicker you do it, the easier it is. Forgive freely. Matthew 10:8 (AMPC) says, ...Freely you have received, freely give.

To Forgive means "to excuse a fault, absolve from payment, pardon, send away, cancel, and bestow favor unconditionally." Forgive God if you are angry with Him because your life didn't turn out the way you thought it should. God is always just. There may be things you don't understand, but God loves you, and people make a serious mistake when they don't receive help from the only One who can truly help them. You may even need to forgive a situation or an object—the post office, bank, a certain store that may have cheated you, a car that always gave you trouble, etc.

Get rid of all poison that comes from bitterness, resentment and unforgiveness. And remember Proverbs 4:23 (AMPC): Keep and guard your heart with all vigilance...for out of it flow the springs of life. Unforgiveness is spiritual filthiness, so get washed in the water of God's Word to forgive and stay clean.

PRAISE TURN PAIN TO GAIN ...

Joseph entered egypt with the pain of rejection, because the people he called his own, who were closest to him sold him because they hated him. This did not interrupt his commitment to God, this did not stop his gifts, this did not affect his ego and approach to life. But he remained in the place of dependency on God who is the origin and perfecter of his dreams. And couple of years later, what was meant for evil God turned into a channel for tremendous blessings. As you maintain your attitude of praise; watch God work miracles beyond your immaginations.

The Principles of Staying At the Top

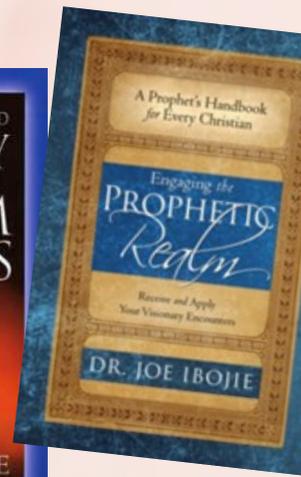

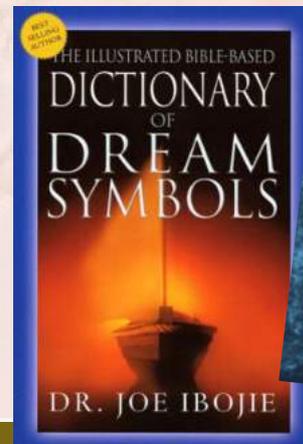

Living by the Rules of Life

To achieve your goals in life, you should know that life has rules. Manoah received a promise from God in the midst of the collective captivity of Israel and a personal captivity of barrenness. Israel was under a curse from God for disobedience; and on personal level, Manoah's wife was barren. The promise of a son who would begin the deliverance of Israel was therefore a move of God that signaled the end of both captivities. However, Manoah did something that most people neglect to do: He asked for the rules of life for this precious promise. Every anointing from God comes with its own job description that we must actively seek out. An anointing will not thrive in an "old soul," and an unprepared soul will quench the fire of the new anointing. We must seek the rules of life for the anointing. This consists of personal and corporate aspects, representing guidance for the personal fellowship with God and guidance for corporate fellowship with one another so that the anointing may thrive. Often, the height of our vertical relationship with God is dependent on the strength of our horizontal fellowship with others...

Garlic Potentially a powerful antibiotic ...

Diallyl sulfide, a compound in garlic, was 100 times more effective than two popular antibiotics in fighting the Campylobacter bacterium, according to a study published in the Journal of Antimicrobial Chemotherapy.

The Campylobacter bacterium is one of the most common causes of intestinal infections. Senior author, Dr. Xiaonan Lu, from Washington State University, said, "This work is very exciting to me because it shows that this compound has the potential to reduce disease-causing bacteria in the environment and in our food supply."

RHEMA FOR MARRIED & SINGLES

Let us help you deal with the most challenging questions you face in courtship, relationship and marriage

(Republished) - My wife's suspicious attitude is slowly tearing our relationship apart ...What can I do?

Suggestion for Men....

Women are blessing and the Bible would never refer to her as anything contrary if she is otherwise. Majority of factors can contribute to the growth or deterioration of her character. Which begins with family, then extends to peers and associates. Don't be quick to let a hope you have invested much in to break. Here are some tips that you can find useful in addressing the issue on ground;

- 1) Investigate on any actions prior or after marriage that arouse breach of trust.
- 2) Investigate her family background, because some traits could have been picked up from there.
- 3) Access your communication with her, because what she is unaware of, might arouse suspicion.
- 4) Examine your attitude toward her (E.g, Do you make out time for her, do you engage in chats and phone conversation with other women on regular basis during your family time with her)?
- 5) Examine the kind of words you say to her? Do you always complain about her, more than you appreciate her, yet complement other women? Do you compare her with other women? (These will stir up inferiority complex in her, making her to see other women better; and as potential threats.)

Strategies that can help:

- If any of these are applicable to your situation, work on them through encouragement and Compliments instead of complain;
- Communicate more with her and create a phone free alone time with her. Also tell her the things you are concerned about and how her improvement can help you become a better husband.
- Pray with her regularly and ask God to give you pair ideas and strategies to help build a sustainable home.
- NB: Give her surprise treats and take her on outings as well, this will assist to clear any junk in her mind. And also in building her public image.

Suggestion for Women...

Proverbs 14:1 ESV The wisest of women builds her house, but folly with her own hands tears it down. Do you know that children from broken relationships suffer a lot psychologically because they need both parents impact in their growth. The first step to dealing with any piled up junk accumulated in your mind is through Forgiveness, bearing in mind that no one is perfect. Effective communication is important as well, this will help you discuss important thing that will contribute to the growth of your home. If you are not inclined to prayer, please do that always, for guidance, insights and revelation is obtainable throuh prayer.

NEWS ALERT

ON TESTIMONIES FROM AROUND THE WORLD

This week on Rhema4life News Alert, we want to shout out Loud on Testimonies of God's manifested power from around the world. Stay motivated, Be inspired and Don't give up hope regardless of your circumstances, There is a set time for a visitation, and yours is NOW.

Hi, welcome to Rhema4life News Alert. This week I found a testimony that caught my attention and I decided to share it in other to motivate anyone in such position to trust God regardless of their situation.

Mark 9:24, Immediately the boy's father exclaimed, "I do believe; help me overcome my unbelief!"²⁵ When Jesus saw that a crowd was running to the scene, he rebuked the impure spirit. "You deaf and mute spirit," he said, "I command you, come out of him and never enter him again."²⁶ The spirit shrieked, convulsed him violently and came out. The boy looked so much like a corpse that many said, "He's dead."²⁷ But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him to his feet, and he stood up.

Does this look like your story or that of someone close to you? My assurance for you is that Jesus lives and his healing power in unending. The fact that it happened over 2000 years ago does not make it an impossibility today. My charge to you is not to give up, rather exercise Faith and watch what seem like a hopeless situation turn around in your favour.

Let us help you deal with the most challenging questions you face as a young adult

What If My Self-Esteem Is Low?

You can do things to feel better about yourself. It's never too late. Here are some tips to raise your self-esteem:

Be with people who treat you well.

Some people act in ways that tear you down. Others lift you up by what they say and do. Learn to tell the difference. Choose friends who help you feel OK about yourself. Find people you can be yourself with. Be that type of friend for others.

Say helpful things to yourself.

Tune in to the voice in your head. Is it too critical? Are you too hard on yourself? For a few days, write down some of the things you say to yourself. Look over your list. Are these things you'd say to a good friend? If not, rewrite them in a way that's true, fair, and kind. Read your new phrases often. Do it until it's more of a habit to think that way.

Accept what's not perfect.

It's always good to do the best you can. But when you think you need to be perfect, you can't feel good about anything less. Accept your best. Let yourself feel good about that. Ask for help if you can't get past a need to be perfect. Set goals and work toward them. If you want to feel good about yourself, do things that are good for you. Maybe you want to eat a healthier diet, get more fit, or study better. Make a goal. Then make a plan for how to do it. Stick with your plan. Track your progress. Be proud of what you've done so far. Say to yourself, "I've been following my plan to work out every day for 45 minutes. I feel good about it. I know I can keep it up."

Focus on what goes well.

Are you so used to talking about problems that they're all you see? It's easy to get caught up in what's wrong. But unless you balance it with what's good, it just makes you feel bad. Next time, catch yourself when you complain about yourself or your day. Find something that went well instead. Give and help. Giving is one of the best ways to build self-esteem. Tutor a classmate, help clean up your neighborhood, walk for a good cause. Help out at home or at school. Make it a habit to be kind and fair. Do things that make you proud of the kind of person you are. When you do things that make a difference (even a small one) your self-esteem will grow.

THE STORY OF JESUS BIRTH

Luke 2:4-12, So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. 5 He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. 6 While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, 7 and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them. 8 And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. 9 An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. 10 But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. 11 Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. 12 This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

QUESTIONS?

- 1) In what town was Jesus born?
- 2) Why wasn't Jesus born in a guest house?
- 3) Who informed the shepherds about Jesus birth?
- 4) Why were the shepherds initially terrified?
- 5) What was the sign that the shepherds were asked to watch out for?
