Jesus Christ

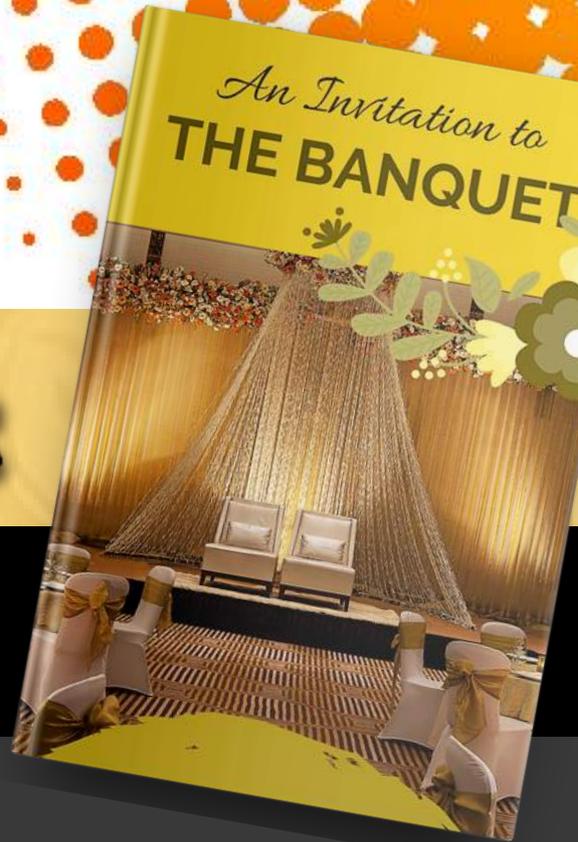

knocks at the door of your heart with an invitation to His ...

BANQUET

Have you struggled with harmful habits that are hurting your faith and testimony? We've all been there at one time or another. Be assured that God offers love, forgiveness, and restoration. And can help you find renewed joy, peace, hope, and love today.

Jesus says these kind words to you, "My blood was shed for your present, past and future mistakes. I was wounded for your transgressions, I was bruised for your iniquities: the chastisement of your peace was upon me; and with my stripes your physical, spiritual, emotional and psychological healing was confirmed".

Behold, I stand at the door of your HEART and knock. If YOU hear My voice and open the door, I will come in and dine with YOU. (Rev 3:20)

IF YOUR RESPONSE TO THE INVITATION IS YES

Say this Prayer Now

Lord Jesus, I accept your invitation today. I am sorry for all my wrongs and repent of my ignorance. Please forgive me and help me become a better person committed to you all the days of my life, I accept Your death as the penalty for my sin, and recognize that Your mercy and grace is a gift you offered to me because of your great love for me, Today, I receive you into my heart as the Son of God and as Savior and Lord of my life. Henceforth take control of my life and help me to live for you, Amen.

Congratulation! You are now a Born again christian. Read the bible daily, obey God's word, trust Him and He will not fail you. Look for a church group that can support you, or chat with our team 24/7 daily @ www.mountainofthelord.co.uk

WALKING IN THE CONCIOUSNESS OF JESUS

Gives a sense of direction and aligns us with God master plan

John 21:7 (KJV), Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

P. Gloria Austine E.

Mountain of the Lord & Rhema4life Magazine, UK

RHEMA FOR YOU

From the above scripture when Simon Peter perceived the presence of Jesus his consciousness was awakened then, "he girt his fisher's coat unto him (because he was naked)...". Peter was used to the pattern of physically walking, talking and doing everything with Jesus. But after the death and resurrection of Jesus, Peter lost contact with the pattern he was familiar with; hence went back to the old.

But Jesus approached him in the early hours of the morning to revive his consciousness in other to give him clarity and direction. This season Jesus is reviving His consciousness in our hearts, as he did with Peter. Because the consciousness of Jesus gives a sense of protection, offers the right strategy for productivity, creates an atmosphere for harvest, offers divine direction that yields results that are beneficial. The consciousness of Jesus stirs up the hunger to do the right thing and boost confidence. The consciousness of Jesus is a self-motivator, which prompts the mortal body with the zeal and desire to do more.

The consciousness of Jesus creates the desire to love genuinely, to give, it creates and maintains the ability to be continually grateful. Because gratitude is an act of thanksgiving and a culture of God's kingdom.

IT'S TIME TO RELEASE FAITH FOR BIGGER THINGS

Kathie Walters Good News Ministries

Now is the time for you to bring out the things that have been on your heart – it's time to release faith to receive bigger things. God is giving gifts of faith. As you pray about those things on your heart (things that may be a bit hidden now), you will find yourself not just believing, but knowing. If the spirit of doubt or fear or discouragement tries to fight you, command it to go. Speak to your faith and tell it to rise up. It is like an artesian well springing up...it is in you, and God is igniting it.

Remind God of what you have asked for and begin to thank Him, and then start to declare it. If you have the answer, declare it. Remember, Jesus said that when you pray, believe, and you will have it then. If you don't see it the next day don't worry and don't go back to asking. If your child asked you seriously for a bicycle and you said, "Yes, I will buy one for you in a couple of weeks," but then they continually asked you, day after day, you would wonder what was wrong with them. So in spite of what's happening in the natural, where things look kinda down and tiresome (who loves being locked away with their favorite restaurant a mile away, but can't go and sit there?),

God is giving presents and gifts. What's coming is MUCH MORE exciting. I love the "much more" chapter, Romans 5. Check it out. There is always "much more" because His love has no limits, His grace has no measure, His power has no boundaries known unto men, but out of His infinite riches in Jesus, He gives and gives and gives again.

God doesn't want us to be affected by the natural realm; it doesn't have anything to say to us; it's not our "language." I am a giver. I love to give, I love to bless; I am like my Dad! In March-April, God told me to "Give more." I did, and I actually looked on Facebook for people in need, and listened if Holy Spirit said to give. I was paying our local waitress wages, too, and I was running low...and God told me to give to two more ministries. But my faith was in it – my faith was strong (His faith rose up in me), and the next day someone sent me a huge amount of money. So I started again.

Biblical Based Interpretation of Dreams

Dream Symbol - Week 16 - Cheque

A cheque in a dream is a seal of promise. It also represents a promise that is guaranteed.

Symbolic Actions

A dream with the dreamer receiving a cheque or cashing a cheque symbolizes that the time of maturity of divine promise has come. A bounced check indicates false promise/deception. To be given a cheque symbolize a promise for a future date.

Individual Actions

Ever had any of these dreams? Depending on the content of the dream. Pray and thank God for establishing His guaranteed promises concerning your life. Pray for increased spiritual sensitivity and discernment in order to easily identify the schemes of deception.

You were Created for Worship ...

Are you ready to unleash the power of Praise? John 4:24, God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth."

YOUR ATTITUDE WILL PROVOKE TESTIMONY

Psalm 6 vs 5, For in death there is no remembrance of thee in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

Be reminded to always be thankful to God whose mercy has kept you this far. Thank God for the gift of life. Do you know that it is now that you have breathed that you ought to Praise God? Many of us take this gift for granted.

Where ever you are, in the hospital, at home, etc you can still praise God. Don't let anything stop you from giving thanks. Because in your attitude and response to gratitude is your testimony.

Dear Employee,

It is important to gain from the knowledge and expertise of your team members; And the easiest way this can happen is by helping each other as a team, Lending a sympathetic ear to each others problems (should such situation arise).

If one of your team members is not able to perform a particular task, sit with him, brainstorm ideas and help him find an appropriate solution. Show genuine courtesy towards fellow workers. And remember that what you make happen in the lives of others, God will make happen in your life.

Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. (3 John 1:2)

HOW TO USE 'GARLIC' AS HOME REMEDY TO GET RID OF YEAST INFECTION - 1

Garlic is a known antifungal and antibiotic. However, recent research suggests that eating garlic has no effect on the levels of yeast in the vagina.

As an alternative to eating garlic, some women have tried using garlic internally. They claim to experience relief from yeast infection, by placing a garlic clove, threaded with a string, into the vagina overnight. While there is no evidence to say this works, it is a low-risk home remedy for yeast infection.

People with sensitive skin may experience burning and even skin damage. As such, people should not use garlic if they have sensitive skin. If the burning sensation worsens, people should discontinue use. Also, a vaginal cream containing garlic and thyme was found to be as effective as clotrimazole vaginal cream in the treatment of yeast infection.

Five red flags you shouldn't ignore in Marriage - 3

(In every relationship that's troubled, there's a point of no return that, unfortunately, can only be seen in hindsight. Following are some completely anecdotal tips drawn from experience of others;)

3. One or both of you stop discussing major decisions or choices.

When things have escalated to the point you learn about your spouse dealings and activities from third parties e.g relatives, friends, neighbors, etc. It is a call for swift remedial actions to be taken. The first step is prayer (for insight, guidance, and direction on how to approach the issue); and the second important step is communication (not nagging or fighting).

My Best Friends and I Argue and Fight Over Little Things?

If you haven't experienced any conflict with your best friend yet, either (a) your best friend is an imaginary friend, or (b) you really don't know each other well enough yet. Because when you get to know someone really well, conflict is inevitable. No two people are exactly the same. They have different backgrounds, different perspectives and different desires. Sooner or later you will have a disagreement. But as you learn how to handle your conflicts your friendships can grow.

Friendships go through stages. The first stage is the I'm-getting-to-know-you stage. During this stage you learn about each other. Then you move to the I'm-getting-to-know-you-better stage. This stage holds the potential for the most fun. The third stage is I'm-getting-to-know-you-all-too-well stage. During this stage you've come to know each other so well you say the same things at the same time. But you have also gotten to know each other's negative traits, and they bug the daylights out of you.

NEW TO HOMESCHOOL

COORDINATE WITH TEACHERS

Follow the learning plans, but have a chat with the teacher to learn what is expected of them and of you. Build a workflow that works for your child and your family.

SET A SCHEDULE...

You may be following a lesson plan, but it's up to you and your child to set how you'll work with it. If you do have the flexibility, set up times for study and breaks at times that work with your child and family.

...BUT BE FLEXIBLE

Changes do happen. Even if you have lesson plans and study schedules, home school is a new scenario for many. Don't be too hard on yourself. Allow time to adjust.

LEAN IN TO YOUR CHILD'S NATURAL INTERESTS

If your child is really engaged and self-driven on certain topics, schedule these topics during times where you can take a mental break or focus on other work.

CONNECT WITH PARENTS

Mailing lists of group chats are helpful. You can chat with parents going through home school the first time, share stories, get tips. Times may be hard but you don't have to go through it alone.

The Five Finger Prayer for Children

Thumb (people who are close to you) These are your close friends and family, often the first you think about when you pray. Give thanks to God and ask his protection on your parents, siblings, friends, and classmates.

Pointer Finger (Praying for those who point the way and lead us) These are leaders in your life, such as teachers, preachers or elders. Those who lead the church or lead in your family. Offer God your thanksgiving for them and ask him to help them in their important work.

Tall Finger (Praying for people in authority) This is our tallest finger. The big people in the world need prayer too. Ask God to give wisdom to our government, military, and police.

Ring Finger (Praying for people who are weak) This is our weakest finger so we do not use it to lift or carry things. People without strength or power need our prayers. We should remember others who are sick, live in poverty, or are treated badly. Pray that Jesus would give them new strength.

Little Finger (Lastly, I will pray for myself) We help others and often put their needs before our own but God wants to hear about our needs too. I can pray for my own growth in mind, body, and spirit.
